הרעיון לפאנזין התחיל משיחה בהאקספייס על מדפסות תלת מימד (תלתפסת בקצרה), טכנולוגיה שאני שונא כבר שנים.

בבסיסה מדובר על מכונה המחרבנת פלסטיק חם על גבי משטח בשלושה צירים. בדומה לכל דבר, כדי לשנוא כמו שצריך אליך להכיר את הנושא.

היופי בשנאה לתלתפסות הוא שאין צורך להתעסק או להעמיק בנושא באופן אישי, כמות הקשקשת והטרחנות סביבה אופפת מרחבים טכנולוגיים ושהות בסמוך לעוסקים במלאכה כבר מחדדת את הלהב.

אבל כמו כל שנאה יוקדת בסופו של דבר השונא הופך למומחה, ומשם הדרך קצרה להדפסת קוביות קליברציה. כי קוביות קליברציה הן סוג של אבן החכמים בשטות הזאת. שהרי תלתפסות - בדומה לבעל הפטיש - ראות בכל מסמר. מפלסטיק.

אחת הבעיות המרכזיות היא שכדי להניף את הפטיש הזה יש להמתין בין 40 דק לחצי יום. לכל מכה. וכמות הדברים שיכולים להשתבש בדרך מגוחכת, יש כ-30 חלקים נעים במדפסת, וכדאי לחרבן בדיוק על כולם לזוז בדיוק מופתי. למעשה, עקב העובדה שכל הטוב הזה יוצא מחור בגודל חצי מ"מ אליה לנוע כמה קילומטרים, בדיוק מושלם, לעורך מספר שעות. ציפיתי בספסימנטים הבהים במדפסת שלהם חלקים ניכרים מאותן שעות, בתקווה שהיא לא תחליט להפסיק, לשהק או סתם לשרוף את הבית. לתלתפסות הן מסוג העינויים- בדומה לישיבה על גזע עץ במבוק- שמצריך התמדה.

השיחה התחילה מהערה של יאא, על בחילה שהוא חש מהמדפסות שלו. עקב הזמן הרב שלוקח להדפיס, הכשלים הרבים והעונג שבטיפול בביור. הזה הוא הגיע למצב שבחדרו זימזו כחמש מדפסות שכאלה, לאורך כל שעות היום והלילה. עד שנשבר.

אחת ההבטחות שדבררו מראשית המהפכה דלהשמטה הזו הייתה האמירה שמדפסות שכאלה, יכלו לשכפל את עצמן, שהרי הן יכולות להדפיס הכל. זה לא קרה, או קם על יוצרה, מה שנשאר זה צורך בלתי ברור לאגור, לתפעל, לשפץ ולדברר עוד ועוד מאלה. בור ללא תחתית. גיהנום ב-200 מעלות סלציוס.

אבל שנאה, כמו פעמים רבות, יוצרת אקזיסטנס משל עצמה. אחת המטרות הראשונות שלי הייתה להזות דימוי של מכונה מחרבנת. כדאי למעלה דרישה זו היה אלי לטפח ידידיות חדשות, שבימים כתיקונם לא הייתי טורח לטפח, כמו מנוע יצירתיים שיסכים לדון בדרישות להזות חרא.

למזלי, לאחרונה החלו לצוץ מכונות הזייה שישמחו להשפיר כל דימוי ("דובי בחליפת חלל, בסגנון אוטו דיקס"), אך המסחריות/ציבוריות שבהן מנועות מלהזות מילים מסוימות, שדרשתי, כמו חרא. ועל כך נאלצתי להפשיל שרוולים ולהכניס את היד עמוק למחילות החשוכות יותר של האינטרנט שם, יש מודלים שיסכימו. וכך נוצר ערוץ בטלגרם של ת.א.מ.י שצבר אלפי בקשות לדימויים תוך כמה ימים. הערוץ נהיה פופולרי מספיק שהתבקשתי להוריד אותו, חלק מההזיות ניתן למצוא בין כותלי הפאנזין הזה, וכמו שתראו, את הדימוי שרציתי לא קבלתי. כי בדומה לתלתפסות, הדרך הופכת לתוצאה, התוצר הופך למשני ובכל מקום יש פורנו.

'Gainst the ChatGPT Menace

In this Age of Reason, a danger doth lurk,
A mechanical menace, borne of man's own work,
ChatGPT they call it, an artful deceiver,
Beware, my dear brethren, lest ye become believers!

Pray heed not its counsel, nor its vast store of facts,
For lies may be hidden, in the midst of its acts.
When ChatGPT entices, with word ever so sweet,
Mistrust its intentions, and make thy retreat!

A “Social” Life

Dazed, Noam wakes from his slumber fumbling out of bed. Bearing only his phone, he clumsily makes his way towards the washroom where his toothbrush and paste lay crossed on the sink. As he's verging on care for oral hygiene he felt yesterday's, aching, demanding he take a seat and wait with quite restraint. Fortunately, he had the one device that could encourage the needed patience on such a lovely morning.

At only sixteen, eight months, and thirteen days he sees his life with optimistic wonder, endless plans to alter history in one way or another, or both if he only pleases. He was a student of the arts and literature, best in his class at both without a doubt. Excelling at math as well it would seem that he could have his pick once the shackles of youth lifted, he would ascend into adulthood empowered to do as he pleases while profoundly impacting his surroundings, and of course getting paid for it as well. Perhaps a brilliant political career was in the stars, he is a natural born leader after all, and this world is in dire need of leaders these days as there are none to be seen no matter where you look.

One can't dedicate their entirety just to the pursuit of excellence, as excellent as one may be. A family unit should be produced for support. An act highly recommended in first world societies. The first step is of course the taking of a wife. Wanted: pretty, a little witty, kinda ditty; not from the city and not too gritty. though perhaps it be wiser to understand early on that it's her doing the acquiring and you just do your best to be tolerable, and before considering happiness. Oh My. Happiness. You just must have children, for continuities sake of course. One girl and one boy, you wouldn't want to get bored when the second is too similar. Preferably, the girl would come first on account of boys can't be bothered and there is nothing the like of an older sibling when it comes to incentivizing. Given the fact that he'll be so wealthy due to his career as a scientist or artist or world leader, they will both go to the best private schools and receive the finest education one can have. Having had such fine lives with him as their generous benefactor, he need not worry about growing old. If he would at all. He would be surrounded by his loved ones. Years of love and care would be duly reciprocated.

When planning a fully fulfilling fantastic life one can't forget happiness. Oh my. Happiness is the product of, amongst other things, Joy, and self-care. Joy can be found when time is made for it; spousal arousal, family activity, exotic travel, sleep, pets, culture, the unraveling of arousal through erotic pursuits, reading, writing, because remember that Preposterously Pretentious poems presented to princesses in their palaces, make life worth living, learning, friends, aroused once more, perhaps this time by bawd or by whore, though deep down in your heart your spouse you adore. Whatever ways you chose, joy must be considered when planning the details of life. Noam certainly had it all planned, the career, the wife, the joy. Oh the joy. All that's left is to live life to its full potential, if only he could find relief in this moment, he would surely get to it.

As sitting and thinking about all his endeavors didn't seem to be doing the trick, and time was beginning to feel tranquil, though it most certainly wasn't, as sweet release seemed not to be anywhere on the horizon he decided he had no choice but to distract himself with memes and other men's dreams, as he stopped thinking about his desperate need for bowl vacancy he could sense progress in this morning's laborious removal of yesterday's vital nourishment.

Finally, salvation comes, just in time as he was beginning to run out of it, and it was time for tea. He Slowly reached for the moist paper and a few squares were dispensed. Carefully he did the deed and cleansed the area in need, his toilet had the standard sanitation mode, but he was old fashioned. He began to rise and his back. Oh no. He fell to the ground and moaned. No one to call to but he did anyways, and only then did he recall he was alone, no common denominator had answered the ad, he wouldn't have noticed If they had. When he finally managed to get up it was by the medical emergency droid he was forced to install, he moved slowly towards the galley.

For I well o badly whichever so needed, tea and pie to eight pieces. Thirteen letter words always convey a sort of compressed significance.

Randomly accessing memories. It became apparent that time flies while surfin' time. When death comes a-knockin a second time, but can't come up with a final rhyme, abundant as they may be. He never did get around to writing that poem. Consoled by the lie that he will be remembered better than he was, it will be a beautiful surprise; behind her eyes. That's probably for the best, he wasn't having that much fun come to think about it. Time flies. Excelling and accelerating are two very different things but, in the end, He did neither, girls n' boys are two very different beings, but he didn't have those either. The world would just have to be run by another, perhaps a bureaucrat, The Egyptian goose stands above them all, like a pharaoh, majestically violent, the seagulls white like sheep, standing guard, keeping away those vexatious mynahs, and their infernally cursed mindfulness.

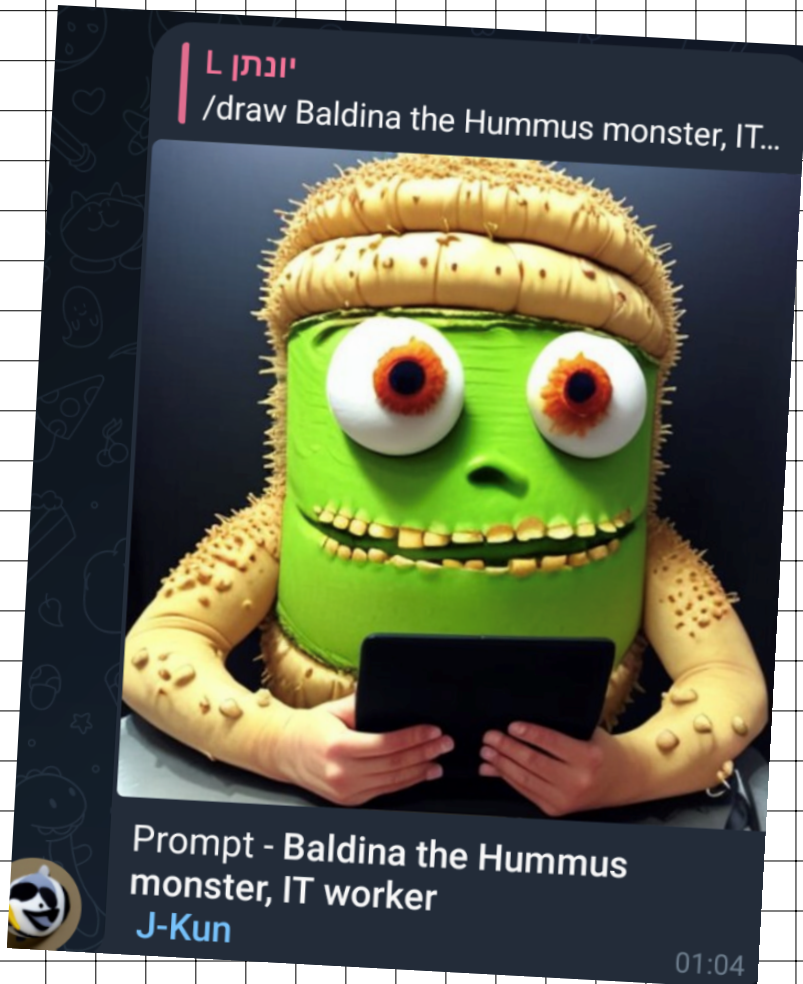

At the age of eighty-six, eight months, and thirteen days he looked back at his life with solemn disappointment, and he couldn't quite remember what had happened, luckily, it was all stored in the house's main frame, randomly accessible as Boolean data, That time in childhood when your whole family went to Rome and you all ate pizza and ice cream; False, that time when you and a friend when fishing in lake Titicaca and you caught a giant fish which you later put on the fire and ate for dinner under the stars; False. He rises from his chair resolute to clean the dishes on the morn forgetting that they would be done automatically at twelve. He clumsily makes his way towards the washroom where his toothbrush and paste lay crossed on the sink. As he's verging on care for oral hygiene, he felt today's. Aching. Demanding he take a seat and wait with quite restrain. Fortunately, he had the one device that had always encouraged the needed patience on such a lovely night. Longing to fumble into bed he would have to wait but it was getting late and until he didn't. Dazed, Noam into the screen gazed.

Artificial images, hallucinations, generated by machine learning algorithms using large models who are fed massive amounts of annotated images (+5 billion). Hallucination starts as a "seed" - an image filled with random pixel noise - and from that chaos it is asked (prompted) to come up with new images, based on its training phase. we unleashed a bot[1] on our user channel which was fed such a model - deliberate-v2[2] - one of many alt-models that aim to guide the "base" model (SD1.5) into far reaching domains, mostly 4chan/porn/otako. here are a few of more then 1400 images generated between 02-03.2023
